The background is a dark blue, almost black, space filled with glowing blue light trails that curve and swirl across the frame. In the background, there is a faint, grid-like pattern of binary code (0s and 1s) and various alphanumeric characters, suggesting a digital or data environment. The overall aesthetic is futuristic and technological.

The only thing I see this idea is that giving the New Testament could lead to children reading it and that could easily lead to their loss of faith quickly and accurately, as the book outdated as a manual for modern society. However, I do not think it is the role of the schools to cherish children and choose it.

The Reykjavik Human Rights Policy is available at <http://reykjavik.is/manrettiindaste...>, which states: "The policy aims at ensuring that all citizens enjoy equal rights regardless of their origin, nationality, language, language, color, religion, sexual, sexual orientation, sexual orientation, sexual orientation, age, disability, classmates, physical activity, health, organs or other status." This proposal goes against it.

The New Testament deals with the lifetime of the most remarkable one. He was sent here because of the question of man about the existence of God. It is a compulsory reading to read about him, no matter what conclusion you finally get. There has been no loss of following him. His name is Jesus Christ, and his story is young in a humanistic context. He was up, really just around the corner.

The countries of the world with the highest level of equality (the Nordic countries) have been based on Christian values, and I therefore think it is important that everyone learns. A great book that encourages love, equality, tolerance, self-esteem and independence. It makes everyone good to read it. Reading the New Testament does not make you Christian. The decision of the individual to have fellowship with Jesus and follow him does. The more knowledge we give the children the better they are prepared to stand up for themselves.

Guðjón Gíslason

Current community is based on the message of this book, whether or not people have or against them. And children have the right to learn about it and decide whether they want to follow this book or not. Therefore, it's an imprint to give them this and allow them to sort. The second is a violation of their right to study.

It's not up to the schools to teach about one religion more than the other. The children who learn the most about Christianity. But an innovative idea to teach children religion and thus take care of everything possible and from all over the world.

Eiríkur Fannar Jónsson

It is not the schools to instill children religious beliefs. Much more natural is that in the appropriate religious institutions. Those who want the New Testament could then approach it in their church.

I have a revolutionary idea. What about giving the New Testament to churches?

↑ 40 ↓ 1 ↩ ⚠ ×

The school system is working on behalf of the government, as our representative of all and the power we have in common. Therefore, it should not be applied to give young people the idea that it's the power that society regards one religion more or better than others. Such an attitude is a majority attempt to use its facilities to provide increased body weight gain through the power of the joint institutions. It's not okay. Not because the 'New

Reykjavik education policy until 2030

- Reykjavík was shaping a new education policy
- Purpose is to get citizens' views on what should be the most important skills and qualifications for an 18-year-old
- Citizens in Reykjavik have opportunity to participate directly in formulating city policy

Human Policy - Implementations

Here was the second part of the consultation on Reykjavik Education Policy. There were searched for ideas on how to enforce five key elements that emerged from the first part of this consultation this spring. Then it came to the conclusion that the focus was on social skills, self-esteem, literacy, creativity and health in the policy.

Долбоор Сиздин айылга төмөнкү үч багыт боюнча колдоо көрсөтөт: 1. Айылды электр энергия менен камсыздоону жакшыртуу, 2. Электр энергиясы жок жерлерге жаңы электр тармактарын кеңейтүү, 3. Көчө жарыкташдыруусуни орнотуу. Сиздин айылда фокус топтордо талкуу жүргүзүлүп, жалпы жыйында «АЙЫЛДЫ ЭЛЕКТР ЭНЕРГИЯ МЕНЕН КАМСЫЗДООНУ ЖАКШЫРТУУ» артыкчылыктуу багыт деп аныктады. Сиздин пикириңиз кандай, кайсы багыт артыкчылыктуу?

Кичинекей көчөлөр эл столба койулбаган каралай кала беретти ошондо. Баарына бирдей караган жакшы болсо керек. Ашыкча каражат кетирип столб койул фанарларга эмне керек болчу, эски турган столбаларга фанар илсе болбойт беле. Ал жака кеткен каражатты керектуу (жолго) жумшаса болбойт беле

Сиздин кайрылуунуз боюнча төмөнкү маалымдардыбыз. Энерго компаниялар жер-жерлерде айылдын аныкталган багыттардын инвестициялык чыгымдардын эсептөө иштерин баштады. Бул иш-чара айыл тургундарынын, АӨтүн АРИСтин инженеринин жана кызматкерлеринин катышуу лары менен өтөт. Ушуга байланыштуу, айылдардын тургундарынан долбоорду ишке ашырууда активдүү катышууну өтүнөбүз, долбоорду ишке ашыруунун жыйынтыктары ар бир айылдын тургунунан көз каранды болот. Терең урматтоо менен, АРИС Кайтарым байланыш мех...

The project will support your village in three areas: 1. Improving rural electricity supply; 2. Expansion of new power grids to areas without electricity; 3. Installation of street lighting. In your village, focus group discussions were held, and the general meeting identified 'IMPROVING THE RURAL ELECTRICITY SUPPLY' as a priority. What do you think, what is the priority?

Small streets will be left unattended. It is better to treat everyone equally. What was the point of putting lanterns at the expense of extra money? Wouldn't it be possible to hang lanterns on old poles? Shouldn't the money spent there be spent properly?
Answer PPMS ARIS
We would like to inform you that Energo companies have started the calculation of investment costs in certain areas of the village. This event will be attended by villagers, ARIS engineers and staff. In this regard, we ask villagers to take an active part in the project, the results of which will depend on each villager. Sincerely, ARIS Feedback Mechanism

What have we learned?

CITIZENS.IS

Participation must be fun

- Fun, easy, informative and educational
- If it's not 'fun' people will rather go on Facebook, YouTube, play computer games or watch a movie
- We live in a world with endless possibilities for fun activities, civic work competes with that

CITIZENS.IS

Reward citizens

- Use the best citizens ideas on a regular basis
- Talk about successful projects to show value, build trust and increase participation
- If citizens don't know the results it will be hard to get more participation from them

Communication is key

- Good communication is the key to success
- We must use good, modern tools for this but tools alone are not enough
- Realistic marketing budgets are critical

Public and not for profit

- We don't want the digital transformation of democracy to also mean the privatization of our democratic infrastructure
- Trust is a major problem in democracy today and for-profit democracy is not the solution
- Open source software, decentralization and publicly operated servers are key for trust
